

ROCKLAND COUNTY FOOD PANTRIES

FOOD ASSISTANCE

Food Stamps (845) 364-3100

This is a Federal program that enables low-income households to meet their food needs. Food Stamp benefits are accessed with an Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) card that is used like cash at most food markets.

Free and Reduced Price School Lunch Call your school district for information

This is a federal program that provides free and reduced-priced school lunches to income-eligible children in schools and residential child care institutions.

WIC (Women, Infants and Children Program) (845) 364-2577

A federally funded nutrition program for women who are pregnant or nursing and for children under five years old. Qualified participants receive vouchers to purchase supplemental nutritious foods.

Meals on Wheels (Home Delivered Meal Program) (845) 624-6325

This county wide program provides nutritious, hot home-delivered meals to individuals of advanced age or living with disabilities that prevent them from buying or preparing their own food. Various streams of funding are available to cover the cost of meals.

FOOD PANTRIES/SOUP KITCHENS

Food Pantries and Soup Kitchens provide free bags of food/meals to people in need of assistance. Some programs have eligibility guidelines.
